

Cultural Blindness
Cultural Bias
Cultural Oppression

Cultural Blindness

Cultural blindness is the inability to understand how specific situations might be seen different by people belonging to different culture because of a rigid commitment to a set of views, attitudes, traditions, beliefs values and opinions created by one's own culture without judging whether they are good or bad.

Cultural Bias

Cultural bias involves a prejudice or highlighted particular way of looking at something that suggests a preference of one culture over another. Cultural bias can be described as discriminative. There is a lack of group integration of social values, beliefs, and rules of conduct.

Cultural bias is based on preconceived opinions that are often times based cultural blindness against a person or group of people based on the color of one's skin.

Cultural Oppression

Cultural Oppression is when a person or group in a position of power controls the less powerful in cruel and unfair ways. Oppression can be widespread throughout a culture, or felt by a single individual.

